- Muslims believe that there is only one God, known as Allah, and that Muhammad is His final prophet.
- The Qur'an is the holy book of Islam, believed to be the word of Allah as revealed to the Prophet Muhammad.
- The Five Pillars of Islam are the core beliefs and practices that shape the lives of Muslims, including prayer, charity, and fasting.
- A mosque is a place of communal worship for Muslims, often featuring beautiful geometric patterns and an arched doorway.
- During the month of Ramadan, Muslims fast from dawn until sunset to show devotion, practice self-discipline, and remember those less fortunate.
- Zakat is the practice of giving a portion of one's wealth to those in need, ensuring that the community supports its most vulnerable members.

Did you know? Did you know? The Islamic calendar is a lunar calendar, which means the dates of important festivals like Eid shift slightly each year as they follow the phases of the moon!
