

Kit’s Coding Command Centre: Class 4 Vocabulary Mat

Learning objective: To understand and use key programming terminology to design, write, and debug computer programs.

Key Vocabulary

Use this vocabulary mat to help you understand the language of coding. The terms are grouped into three categories: 'The Building Blocks', 'Solving Problems', and 'Logic and Flow'.

|                                                   |                    |                      |
|---------------------------------------------------|--------------------|----------------------|
| Explain why 'Dec...                               | Compare and con... | If a computer pro... |
| Justify your ans... Why is it important for a ... | What might happ... | Imagine you are p... |