Inspiring Heroes: A Timeline Journey with Ellie

Learning objective: To learn about significant historical figures who made a difference in the world by sequencing events and recognising their contributions.

Ellie the Elephant has been reading her history books! Look at the list of inspiring people below. Your task is to match each person to the correct description of what they did to help the world. Then, put them in order from the earliest person to the most recent by writing the numbers 1, 2, 3, and 4 in the boxes.

Word bank: Rosa Parks · Mary Seacole · Walter Tull · Sir Lewis Hamilton

1. 1. Mary Seacole: She was a nurse who travelled to help soldiers. (Match: A, B, C, or D) (2 marks)

2. 2. Walter Tull: He was a professional footballer and a brave army officer. (Match: A, B, C, or D) (2 marks)

3. 3. Rosa Parks: She showed great courage and helped change unfair laws in America. (Match: A, B, C, or D) (2 marks)

4. 4. Sir Lewis Hamilton: He is a champion racing driver who works hard to make sport fairer for everyone. (Match: A, B, C, or D) (2 marks)

5. Challenge: Why is it important to remember the stories of people who made the world a better place? (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of yourself doing something kind or brave to help your community, just like the heroes we learned about today.

Extension challenge: Choose one of the people from the list and write two sentences about why they are a hero to you. Use your best handwriting!
