

Literary Critique with Pip: My Book Review

Learning objective: To write a structured and persuasive book review, using descriptive language and justifying personal opinions.

Follow Pip the bookworm's guide to writing a fantastic review. Think carefully about your vocabulary choices—use the word bank to help you express your thoughts clearly. When justifying your opinions, try to use the word 'because' to link your feelings to specific evidence from the story.

Word bank: captivating · suspenseful · vivid · character development · plot twist · recommendation · evocative · perspective · climax · resolution

1. Introduction: What is the title and author of the book? Briefly summarise the main premise without revealing the ending. (2 marks)

---

---

2. Character Analysis: Choose one main character. Explain why their actions or personality made them interesting to read about. (3 marks)

---

---

---

3. The Plot: Describe the most exciting part of the book. Why was this moment effective in keeping the reader engaged? (3 marks)

---

---

---

4. Critical Evaluation: What might happen if the author had chosen a different setting for the story? Justify your thoughts. (4 marks)

---

---

---

---

5. Personal Reflection: Compare and contrast this book with another one you have read. Which did you prefer and why? (4 marks)

---

---

---

---

6. Recommendation: Who would you suggest this book to and why? Provide a persuasive reason for your choice. (2 marks)

---

---

Extension challenge: Imagine you are the author of this book. Write a short paragraph explaining why you chose the specific ending you wrote. Could the story have concluded in a more suspenseful way?