

Fronted Adverbials: The Super Sentence Starters

Learning objective: To identify and use fronted adverbials to express time, place, and manner in writing.

Key Vocabulary

Use this mat to help you start your sentences in exciting ways. Fronted adverbials are words or phrases at the start of a sentence that describe when, where, or how something happens. Remember to always place a comma after your fronted adverbial!

Adverbial A word or phrase that gives us mo...	Fronted When the adverbial is moved to the...	Comma The punctuation mark (,) that must...
Time Adverbials Phrases like 'Yesterday m...	Place Adverbials Phrases like 'In the deep f...	Manner Adverbia... Phrases like 'With great...
Explain why we u...		