

Pip's World Book Day Word Hunt

Learning objective: To use descriptive vocabulary and imaginative adjectives to describe a favourite story character.

Pip the bookworm is getting ready for World Book Day! He wants to dress up as a character from his favourite story, but he needs to find the right words to describe them first. Look at the word bank and choose the best adjectives to describe a character you love. Write your chosen words in the spaces provided to complete the character profile.

Word bank: brave · kind · sparkly · tiny · mischievous · gentle · colourful · clever · strong · quiet

1. My character is called _____. They are very _____ and _____. (2 marks)

2. When my character walks, they look _____. Everyone likes them because they are _____. (2 marks)

3. The most _____ thing about my character is their _____ outfit. (2 marks)

4. If I met this character, I would feel _____ because they are so _____. (2 marks)

5. Why do you think Pip loves reading books about different characters? Write your reason below. (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of yourself dressed up as your favourite book character for World Book Day. Don't forget to draw the special outfit you described in the questions!

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a drawing of a person dressed as a book character.

Extension challenge: Choose one of your adjectives and write a full sentence about your character. For example: 'The brave lion roared softly at the butterfly.'