

World Book Day Challenge with Pip the Bookworm

Learning objective: To test knowledge of literary terminology, comprehension skills, and understanding of World Book Day celebrations.

Read each question carefully. Pip the Bookworm wants to see how much you know about your favourite stories and the importance of reading! Answer all 10 questions to earn your literary badge.

Answer Key: 1. A (World Book Day is a UNESCO event); 2. True; 3. Author; 4. B (To encourage reading for pleasure); 5. False (It is an international celebration); 6. Genre; 7. Setting; 8. C (A story about a real person's life); 9. Plot; 10. Fiction.

Word bank: Fiction · Non-fiction · Character · Setting · Author · Plot · Genre · Biography

1. Which organisation designated World Book Day to celebrate books and authors? A) The UN * B) The Book Club C) Local Schools D) The Library (1 mark)

2. True or False: World Book Day vouchers can be exchanged for special £1 books at participating bookshops. (1 mark)

3. What do we call the person who writes the book? (1-word answer) (1 mark)

4. What is the main aim of World Book Day? A) To sell toys B) To encourage children to explore the pleasure of reading * C) To test children on maths D) To give out free pens (1 mark)

5. True or False: World Book Day is only celebrated in the United Kingdom. (1 mark)

6. A category of literature, such as mystery, fantasy, or science fiction, is known as a _____. (1-word answer) (1 mark)

7. What is the word for the time and place where a story takes place? (1 mark)

8. What is a biography? A) A made-up story B) A book about animals C) A story about a real person's life * D) A book of poems (1 mark)

9. The sequence of events that make up a story is called the _____. (1-word answer) (1 mark)

10. 10. Which type of book is written from the imagination and is not based on true facts: Fiction or Non-fiction? (1 mark)

Draw: Draw your favourite literary character sitting in a cosy reading nook, surrounded by a stack of books and a steaming mug of cocoa.

Extension challenge: Pip wants to collect new words! Write a short paragraph (50 words) describing your favourite book. Use at least three words from the word bank in your description.