

Exploring Europe with Finn the Dolphin

Learning objective: To identify and understand key geographical features and countries within the continent of Europe.

Use these flashcards to test your knowledge of Europe! Finn the Dolphin has been mapping the waters around the continent. Read the front, think of the answer, and then check the back to see if you are correct.

What is the name of the large landmass that contains over 40 countries, including the UK, France, and Italy?

Europe

Which famous mountain range stretches across several countries, including France, Switzerland, and Austria?

The Alps

What do we call a country that has no coastline and is completely surrounded by other land?

A landlocked country

Which large sea lies to the south of Europe and separates it from the continent of Africa?

The Mediterranean Sea

What is the term for the line that separates one country from another?

A border

Finn is swimming around a piece of land that is almost entirely surrounded by water. What is this called?

A peninsula

Which major river flows through London and is a famous landmark in the United Kingdom?

The River Thames

What is the name of the capital city of France, famous for the Eiffel Tower?

Paris

Which mountain range is often considered the natural border between Europe and Asia?

The Ural Mountains

What is the term for the average weather patterns in a region over a long period of time?

Climate

Which country is shaped like a boot and is located in southern Europe?

Italy

Finn wants to know the capital of Spain. Can you name it?

Madrid