

Remembrance Day: A Day to Remember

Learning objective: To understand the importance of Remembrance Day and how we show respect to those who have helped our country.

Today, Ellie the elephant is helping us learn about Remembrance Day. This is a special time when we think about people who have been brave. Use this template to record what you have learnt about this important day. You can draw a picture of a poppy in the box and write or draw your answers in the spaces provided.

Word bank: Poppy · Red · Respect · Remember · Brave · Peace · Soldier · Thank you

1. What is the name of the special red flower we see on Remembrance Day?

2. Why do we wear a poppy? Use the word bank to help you.

3. How can we show respect during the two-minute silence?

4. Who is one person you would like to say 'thank you' to today?

5. If you were drawing a picture for a brave person, what colours would you use and why?

Extension challenge: Talk to a grown-up about a family member who has been brave, or find a picture of a memorial in your local town or village.
