

Rosa's Radiant Wardrobe Quiz

Learning objective: To identify and recall common Spanish vocabulary for items of clothing.

Join Rosa the parrot on her fashion adventure! Read each question carefully and circle the correct answer. Remember to use your knowledge of Spanish nouns and articles.

Answer Key: 1. A, 2. B, 3. True, 4. el vestido, 5. C, 6. False (it is plural), 7. A, 8. los zapatos, 9. B, 10. True.

Word bank: la camiseta · los pantalones · el sombrero · los zapatos · el abrigo · el vestido · la falda · los calcetines

1. 1. Which Spanish word describes a T-shirt? A) la camiseta* B) el abrigo C) los pantalones D) la falda (1 mark)

2. 2. If you are wearing a hat, which word do you use? A) la falda B) el sombrero* C) el abrigo D) la camiseta (1 mark)

3. 3. True or False: 'El abrigo' is the Spanish word for a coat. (1 mark)

4. 4. Rosa is wearing a beautiful dress. What is the Spanish word for dress? (1 mark)

5. 5. Which word refers to trousers? A) la camiseta B) los calcetines C) los pantalones* D) el sombrero (1 mark)

6. 6. True or False: 'La falda' is a word used for a single shoe. (1 mark)

7. 7. How would you say 'the socks' in Spanish? A) los calcetines* B) la camiseta C) el sombrero D) los pantalones (1 mark)

8. 8. What is the Spanish word for shoes? (1 mark)

9. 9. Which of these is a feminine noun? A) el sombrero B) la falda* C) el abrigo D) los pantalones (1 mark)

10. 10. True or False: In Spanish, clothing items often have a gender (masculine or feminine). (1 mark)

Draw: Draw Rosa the parrot wearing a colourful summer outfit. Label her clothing items using the Spanish words from the word bank.

Extension challenge: Greater Depth Challenges: 1. Explain why we use 'los' for some clothing items but 'el' for others. 2. Compare and contrast Spanish clothing nouns with English; what do you notice about the endings? 3. Justify why a Spanish speaker might need to know the gender of a noun when choosing an adjective. 4. What might happen if you used the wrong article (e.g., 'el' instead of 'la')? 5. Create a short Spanish sentence describing what you are wearing today. 6. Research and write a paragraph explaining why clothing vocabulary is essential for travellers visiting Spain.