

Zara's Art Guide: Discovering L.S. Lowry

Step into the world of L.S. Lowry with Zara the Zebra!

- L.S. Lowry was a famous British artist who lived in the north of England.
- He is very famous for painting 'matchstick men' and 'matchstick cats and dogs'.
- Lowry painted industrial towns with tall chimneys, factories, and busy streets.
- He often used a simple colour palette of white, red, yellow, black, and blue.
- His paintings tell stories of how people lived and worked a long time ago.

Did you know? Did you know? L.S. Lowry worked as a rent collector for a living! He painted his famous pictures in his spare time during the evenings and weekends.

Key vocabulary: Industrial · Matchstick men · Landscape · Perspective · Background