

How-To Hero: A Word Mat for Instructions

Learning objective: To understand and use imperative verbs and sequencing language to follow and write instructions.

Key Vocabulary

{ Action words (verbs): { First: 'To do something at the very start.', Next: 'To do something after the first step.', Then: 'To do something after that.', Finally: 'The very last step to finish.', Mix: 'To stir ingredients together.', Cut: 'To use scissors to make something smaller.', Fold: 'To bend paper or fabric over itself.', Stick: 'To use glue to join two things.', Draw: 'To make a picture with a pencil or pen.' }, Useful Words: { Step: 'One part of a list of instructions.', List: 'A group of things written down in order.', Order: 'Making sure things happen one after another.', Ingredients: 'The things you need to make something.', Equipment: 'The tools you use to get a job done.', Safety: 'Keeping yourself and others from getting hurt.', Check: 'To look closely to see if everything is right.' }}

Max the monkey ...	If you are followi...	Pip the caterpillar...
Why is it importa...	If you are using s...	