

How to Write a Non-Chronological Report with Kit the Fox

Get Clever with Kit: Uncover the Facts!

- The Title tells the reader exactly what the report is about.
- An Introduction gives a short summary to hook the reader.
- Subheadings help to break the text into smaller, clear topics.
- Paragraphs contain interesting facts and clear information.
- Pictures and Captions explain more about the topic visually.

Did you know? Did you know? A non-chronological report doesn't follow a timeline. You can write your paragraphs in any order because they are all about the same topic!
