

Non-Chronological Report Word Mat

Learning objective: To learn and use vocabulary for writing non-chronological reports.

Key Vocabulary

Use this mat to help you write your report. These words will help you describe facts and organise your ideas. Read the categories to find the right words.

Heading A big, bold title at the top of the pa...	Sub-heading A small title used to break the ...	Fact A piece of true information that can be p...
Introduction The opening paragraph that gi...	Paragraph A group of sentences about one ...	Layout How you place your text and pictures...
Diagram A drawing that shows how somethi...	Caption A short sentence under a picture tha...	Label A word or phrase pointing to a part of ...
Features Special parts of the writing, like bol...	Formal Writing that is serious and uses clear...	Classification Putting things into groups ba...
Global Something that relates to the whole ...	Habitat The natural home or environment of ...	Diet The food that an animal usually eats.
Expert Someone who knows a lot about a s...		