

Max's Persuasive Plan: Help the Park!

Learning objective: To use persuasive language to convince others to keep our park clean.

Max the monkey wants to keep the park tidy. Use these prompts to help you write a letter to persuade people to pick up their litter. Choose words from the word bank to make your writing strong.

Dear park visitors, our park is a wonderful place to play, but it needs your help to stay beautiful.

Word bank: definitely · because · please · should · important · also · better · together

1. Introduction: Why is the park special? Start with: I think the park is special because... (2 marks)

2. The Problem: What is happening to the park? Start with: It makes me sad that... (2 marks)

3. The Solution: What should people do? Start with: You should always... (2 marks)

4. Conclusion: How will the park look if we help? Start with: If we work together, the park will be... (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Can you add a 'catchy' slogan at the top of your letter to grab people's attention?