

Pip the Bookworm's Library Adventure

Learning objective: To develop reading comprehension skills by identifying facts, making simple inferences, and understanding character feelings in a short story.

Read the story below carefully, then answer the 10 questions that follow to show how well you understood the text.

Pip the caterpillar crawled slowly along the wooden shelves of the big library. He was looking for a new book to read. He found a bright red book about space, but it was too heavy to lift. Next, he saw a small green book about a garden. Pip smiled. He loved stories about flowers and buzzing bees. He curled up on a soft cushion and began to read. 'This is the perfect afternoon,' Pip thought. He made a bookmark out of a dry leaf so he would not lose his place. He felt very happy and peaceful.
