

Pip's Guide to Magical Stories

Grab a book and get lost in a story with Pip the bookworm!

- A character is a person, animal, or creature that stars in your story.
- The beginning of a story introduces the characters and where they live.
- The middle of a story is where the characters face a problem or go on a big journey.
- The end of a story tells us how the problem was solved and how everyone is feeling.
- A plot is the list of exciting things that happen from the start to the finish.
- Reading stories helps your brain grow and teaches you new, wonderful words!

Did you know? Did you know? Every story needs a setting! This is the place where your characters go on their adventures. It could be a deep, dark forest, a busy town, or even a hidden kingdom in the clouds.
