

World Book Day Fun with Pip the Caterpillar

Learning objective: To identify key concepts related to books, stories, and the celebration of reading.

Read the front of the card and try to guess the answer before checking the back. These cards will help you learn all about our favourite day for stories!

Who is the person that writes the words in a story?

An Author

Who is the person that draws the beautiful pictures in a book?

An Illustrator

What do we call a person, animal, or creature in a story?

A Character

Is a story about a dragon who loves to bake cakes fiction or non-fiction?

Fiction

Is a book that tells us real facts about space non-fiction or fiction?

Non-fiction

Where is the place where you can borrow many different books to read at home?

A Library

What is the name for the place and time where a story happens?

The Setting

If Pip the caterpillar is reading a book, what is he doing?

He is decoding words to understand a story

Why do we celebrate World Book Day?

To share a love of reading and celebrate our favourite stories

What do we call the front and back of a book that keeps the pages safe?

The Cover

What is the title of your absolute favourite book?

(Any answer is correct!)

What do we call the list at the front of a book that tells us the chapter names?

The Contents Page