

Finn's Global Trading Quiz

Learning objective: To understand how goods are traded between countries and why we import and export items.

Hello! I am Finn the dolphin. I swim across the oceans to help move goods from one place to another. Read each question carefully and circle the best answer. Use the word bank at the bottom if you get stuck!

Answer Key: 1. A, 2. True, 3. Export, 4. B, 5. False, 6. Import, 7. B, 8. True, 9. £, 10. A. Trade is the buying and selling of goods. We export things we make and import things we need from far away.

Word bank: Import · Export · Trade · Money · Ship · Country

1. 1. What do we call the buying and selling of goods? A) Trade* B) Sleeping C) Playing D) Running (1 mark)

2. 2. True or False: Some countries have things that other countries do not have. (1 mark)

3. 3. When we send goods out of our country to sell, is this an Import or an Export? (1 mark)

4. 4. How do most heavy goods travel across the ocean? A) By bike B) By ship* C) By swimming D) By walking (1 mark)

5. 5. True or False: We only ever buy things made in our own village. (1 mark)

6. 6. When we bring goods into our country from somewhere else, this is called an _____. (1 mark)

7. 7. What is used to pay for goods? A) Leaves B) Money* C) Shells D) Stones (1 mark)

8. 8. True or False: Bananas are often traded because they grow better in warmer countries. (1 mark)

9. 9. What symbol do we use for British money? Write it here: _____ (1 mark)

10. 10. Which of these is a reason why we trade? A) To get things we cannot make* B) To hide things C) To make friends D) To stop working (1 mark)

Draw: Draw a large ship on the ocean carrying containers filled with fruit, toys, and clothes to another country.

Extension challenge: Think of one item in your pencil case. Ask an adult where they think it was made. Is it from the UK or from another country?