

Finn's Global Trading Adventure

Learning objective: To understand how goods are traded between countries.

Read the questions carefully. Use the word bank to help you write your answers. Finn the dolphin needs your help to map out how items travel around the world!

Word bank: Export · Import · Trade · Ship · Goods

1. When a country sends goods to another country to sell, it is called an _____. Fill in the blank. (1 mark)

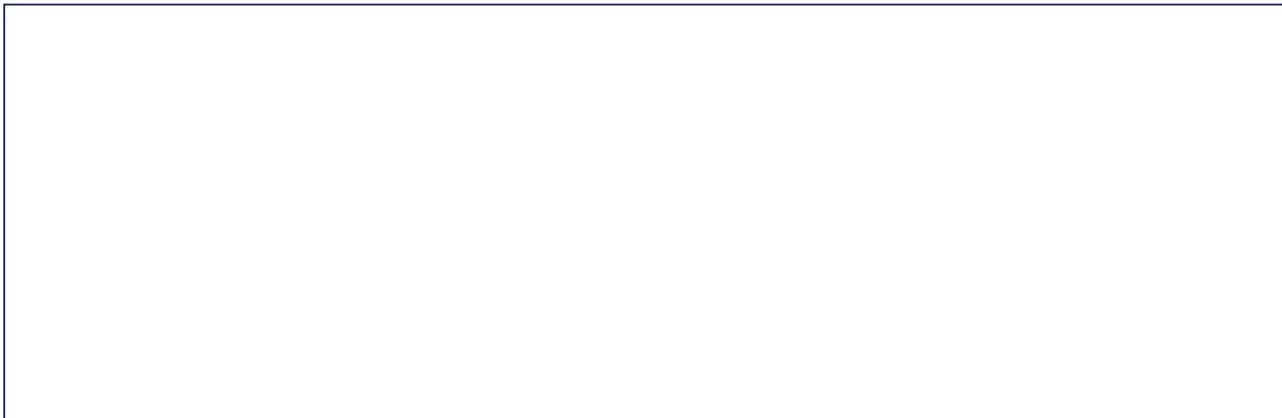

2. When a country buys items from another country, it is called an _____. Fill in the blank. (1 mark)

3. Finn sees a large boat carrying fruit from a warm country to the UK. Is this an import or an export for the UK? Explain why. (2 marks)

4. Why do countries need to trade with each other? (Hint: Think about things we cannot grow or make in the UK). (2 marks)

5. List two items you think the UK might buy (import) from other countries. (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a large ship crossing the ocean. On the ship, draw two things that might be traded, like a crate of bananas or a box of toys.

Extension challenge: Look at the label on your school jumper or a snack in your lunchbox. Can you find the name of the country where it was made?
