

History Assessment: Standing Up for Fairness

Learning objective: To understand the importance of civil rights and the actions of people who fought for equality.

Read each question carefully. Use the word bank to help you with your spelling. Write your answers in the spaces provided.

In history, some people were treated unfairly because of who they were. This was not right. Brave people stood up to change these unfair rules. They wanted everyone to have the same rights. This is called equality. They used peaceful ways to share their message, like walking together in a protest or giving speeches. Their hard work helped to make the world a fairer place for everyone.
