

The Home Front: Life in Britain During World War II

History Detectives: Uncover the stories of the brave people on the Home Front!

- Why were thousands of children evacuated from cities to the countryside during the war?
- How did the Government manage food supplies using the rationing system to ensure everyone received a fair share?
- What was the purpose of an Anderson shelter in a family's back garden?
- How did the role of women change in the workforce during the conflict years?
- What was the significance of the 'Make Do and Mend' campaign for families at home?

Did you know? Did you know? During the war, children were encouraged to 'Dig for Victory' by turning their flower gardens and parks into vegetable patches to help provide food for the country when imports from other nations were difficult to bring in by ship.
