

Celebrating Chinese New Year with Nova and Finn

Join Nova the owl and Finn the dolphin on a journey to explore the magic of the Lunar New Year!

- The festival marks the start of the spring season and is a time to visit family and friends.
- Many people decorate their homes with red paper cuttings and lanterns to bring good luck.
- Giving red envelopes containing money is a popular way to share blessings and prosperity.
- Dragon and lion dances are performed in the streets to drive away bad luck with loud drums.
- The celebration ends with the beautiful Lantern Festival, where glowing lights brighten the night.

Did you know? Did you know? Chinese New Year is based on the lunar calendar, which follows the phases of the moon. Each year is represented by one of twelve animals in the Chinese zodiac!

Key vocabulary: Lunar · Zodiac · Tradition · Festival · Prosperity · Red envelope