A Very Special Time: Christmas with Pip and Friends

Celebrate the season of joy, kindness, and sharing with our animal friends!

- Pip the caterpillar loves how Christmas is a time for sharing gifts and kindness with our friends.
- Max the monkey notices that many people decorate their homes with sparkly lights and colourful baubles.
- Ellie the elephant remembers that Christmas is a special day to gather with family and loved ones.
- Zara the zebra enjoys the beautiful patterns on Christmas cards that people send to say 'I am thinking of you'.
- Leo the lion says that Christmas is a wonderful time to be brave and gentle by helping others in our community.

Did you know? Did you know? Christmas is celebrated all over the world in many different ways! Some people decorate evergreen trees, while others share special meals with their families to show how much they care for one another.
