Sacred Spaces: A Journey Through Places of Worship

Step inside and discover the heart of faith!

■ A church is a place of worship for Christians, often featuring a steeple or bell tower that signals the start of a service.

■ Muslims gather in a mosque, which often includes a minaret—a tall tower used for the call to prayer—and beautiful geometric patterns.

■ In a synagogue, Jewish communities read from the Torah, which is kept in a special cabinet called the Ark at the front of the room.

■ Hindus visit a Mandir, which can be decorated with bright colours and ornate statues of deities, often featuring a tower called a shikhara.

■ A Gurdwara is a place of worship for Sikhs, where the Guru Granth Sahib is treated with great respect and visitors share a meal in the langar kitchen.

Did you know? Did you know? Many places of worship around the world feature incredible architecture designed to draw the eye upwards, symbolising a connection between the earthly world and the heavens above!
