

Thinking About Prayer with Pip

Learning objective: To understand that prayer is a way for people to talk to the divine, express thanks, or ask for help.

Follow the steps below to create a drawing that shows someone in a quiet moment of prayer. You can draw yourself or a friend. Use the word bank to label your picture.

Draw: Draw a scene featuring a person in a quiet, reflective space. Use soft colours to show a feeling of peace. Include the person in the centre of the page. You may draw them in a bedroom, a garden, or a place of worship. The style should be clear and gentle, using simple lines.

Label words: Quiet · Hands · Thank you · Peace · Hope · Thought

Steps:

1. Step 1: Draw a person in a quiet, comfortable place. Draw them with their hands together or in a position that shows they are focusing. Where are they sitting?
2. Step 2: Around the person, draw things that make them feel peaceful, like a sun, a flower, or a calm sky.
3. Step 3: Write one thing you might say in a prayer if you were saying 'thank you' for a friend.
4. Step 4: Use your labels from the word bank to point to parts of your drawing.
