

Rosa’s Radiant Rainbow: A Spanish Colour Guide

Learning objective: To identify, spell, and use key colour vocabulary in Spanish, and understand how adjectives agree with nouns in gender.

Key Vocabulary

Rosa the parrot is ready to help you learn your colours! Use this vocabulary list to practise your Spanish. Notice how some words end in 'o' (masculine) and some in 'a' (feminine). Categories: Primary Colours, Secondary Colours, and Neutral Shades.

rojo The colour red. Often associated with e...	azul The colour blue. Think of the deep ocea...	amarillo The colour yellow. Like the bright s...
verde The colour green. The shade of fresh ...	naranja The colour orange. Like the fruit.	morado The colour purple. A royal and vibra...
rosa The colour pink. Soft and delicate.	marrón The colour brown. The shade of tree...	blanco The colour white. Clean and bright.
negro The colour black. The colour of the ni...	gris The colour grey. Like a cloudy afternoon.	oro Gold. A metallic, shining colour.
plata Silver. A cool, metallic shade.	claro Light. Used to describe a paler version...	oscuro Dark. Used to describe a deeper vers...
Explain why you ...	Compare and con...	If you were descr...
What might happ...	Justify why 'blan...	Create a new sen...