

Rosa the Parrot's Spanish Family Word Mat

Learning objective: To learn and identify key vocabulary for family members in Spanish.

Key Vocabulary

Hello! I am Rosa. Use this word mat to help you talk about your family in Spanish. Read the terms below. I have grouped them to help you remember them. Use these words to complete the activities.

|                                                   |                            |                                           |
|---------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| la familia The family                             | la madre Mother            | el padre Father                           |
| los padres Parents                                | la hermana Sister          | el hermano Brother                        |
| la abuela Grandmother                             | el abuelo Grandfather      | la tía Aunt                               |
| el tío Uncle                                      | el primo Cousin (male)     | la prima Cousin (female)                  |
| el bebé Baby                                      | mi My                      | se llama Is called                        |
| 1. Write the Span... _____                        | 2. Write the Span... _____ | 3. Finish this sen... Mi hermana _____... |
| 4. Draw a line to ... Mother / Grandfather / S... |                            |                                           |