

¡A Divertirse! (Let's Have Fun!)

Join Rosa the Parrot on a journey to discover new hobbies in Spanish!

- To express what you enjoy doing, start your sentence with 'Me gusta' followed by the activity, such as 'Me gusta nadar'.
- When you want to say you do not like an activity, simply add 'No' to the beginning: 'No me gusta dibujar'.
- Many Spanish verbs for hobbies end in '-ar', such as 'nadar' (to swim) and 'dibujar' (to draw).
- Questions about hobbies often begin with '¿Qué te gusta hacer?', which translates to 'What do you like to do?'.
- Using 'y' (meaning 'and') allows you to list multiple hobbies, for example: 'Me gusta leer y escuchar música'.

Did you know? Did you know? Spanish is a global language spoken by over 500 million people! Learning how to talk about your hobbies is a brilliant way to make new friends when you travel to Spanish-speaking countries like Spain, Mexico, or Argentina. Rosa the Parrot says: 'Practising with a partner makes learning new words much faster!'
