

¡Vamos! Transport in Spain

Pack your bags and hop on board! Let's travel through Spain with Rosa the parrot.

- El tren es muy rápido. Many people in Spain choose to travel by train to save time when visiting different provinces.
- El autobús is a common sight in busy cities like Seville, helping people get to work and school every day.
- La bicicleta is an eco-friendly way to explore the beautiful parks and coastal paths found throughout the country.
- El barco is essential for island travel, connecting the mainland to the stunning Balearic and Canary Islands.
- El avión is the preferred choice for travelling long distances quickly, especially when crossing mountains or seas.

Did you know? Did you know? Spain has one of the largest high-speed rail networks in the world! These trains are called the 'AVE', and they can reach speeds of up to 310 kilometres per hour, making them a very popular way to travel between big cities like Madrid and Barcelona.

Key vocabulary: el coche (the car) · el tren (the train) · el autobús (the bus) · el avión (the plane) · la bicicleta (the bicycle) · el barco (the boat) · rápido (fast) · lento (slow)