

Max the Monkey's Adventurous Day: An Adverb Diary

Learning objective: To use adverbs to describe how an action is performed, helping to make sentences more descriptive.

Today, Max the Monkey went on an adventure through the jungle! Read the sentences below and use the word bank to add an adverb to each one. Remember, an adverb tells us 'how' something is done and often ends in '-ly'.

Word bank: happily · slowly · quickly · carefully · loudly · softly · excitedly

1. Max climbed the tall tree _____. (How did he climb?) (2 marks)

2. He spotted a bright yellow banana and grabbed it _____. (How did he grab it?) (2 marks)

3. Max chewed his snack _____ because it was delicious. (How did he chew?) (2 marks)

4. He swung through the jungle vines _____ to catch up with his friends. (How did he swing?) (2 marks)

5. At the end of the day, Max whispered 'goodnight' _____ to the moon. (How did he whisper?) (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Can you write your own sentence about what you did today? Include an adverb to describe how you did one of your activities.
