

Adventures with Words: Mastering Adverbs

Learning objective: To identify, use, and evaluate the impact of adverbs in written ELA.

Read each question carefully. Use your best handwriting and check your spellings. Think about how adverbs change the meaning of your sentences.

Max the monkey sat in the ancient oak tree. He was counting his collection of shiny conkers. Suddenly, a bright blue butterfly fluttered past his nose. Max watched it curiously as it danced through the forest. He jumped down from his branch and followed the creature through the long, waving grass.

Word bank: cautiously · abruptly · magnificently · frequently · patiently · silently · yesterday · everywhere

1. Find and copy two adverbs from the passage above. (2 marks)

2. Underline the adverb in this sentence: 'Pip the caterpillar read his favorite book quietly.' Now, explain what this adverb tells us about the action of reading. (2 marks)

3. Rewrite the following sentence by adding an adverb to describe how the lion moved: 'Leo the lion walked to the watering hole.' (2 marks)

4. Choose the most appropriate adverb from the word bank to complete this sentence: 'Nova the owl stared _____ at the twinkling stars in the night sky.' (1 mark)

5. Identify the adverb of time in this sentence: 'Zara the zebra painted a beautiful portrait yesterday.' Explain how you know it is an adverb of time. (3 marks)

6. Compare and contrast these two sentences: 'Finn swam.' and 'Finn swam energetically through the deep, blue ocean.' How does the addition of the adverb and the prepositional phrase change the reader's understanding of Finn? (4 marks)

7. Justify why an author might choose to use the adverb 'cautiously' instead of 'quickly' when describing a character walking through a dark, mysterious cave. (3 marks)

8. Write a short paragraph (3-5 sentences) about a rainy day spent in the library with Pip. You must include at least three different adverbs. Ensure your writing is descriptive and engaging. (5 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of Max the monkey following the butterfly. Label your drawing with an adverb that describes how Max is moving.

Extension challenge: What might happen to the meaning of a story if all the adverbs were removed? Write a short argument explaining why adverbs are important for a writer's 'toolkit'. Total: /25
