

Ellie's Inspiring Heroes Fact-File

Learning objective: To learn about the achievements of influential Black historical figures and express understanding through simple recording.

Ellie the elephant has a brilliant memory for stories! Today, we are learning about people who have helped change the world for the better. Choose one person you have learnt about during Black History Month. Use this fact-file to write down what you have discovered. You can ask an adult to help you write your sentences.

Word bank: brave · kind · helpful · hero · leader · important · change · history · story

1. Name of the person: Write the name of the person you have learnt about today. (2 marks)

2. What did they do? Write one thing this person did that helped other people. (3 marks)

3. Why are they a hero? Tell us why you think this person is special or important. (3 marks)

4. My favorite fact: Write one interesting thing you found out about them. (2 marks)

5. New words: Can you write two words that describe this person? (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of the person you have chosen. Think about what they might be wearing or what they might be doing to help others.

*Extension challenge: Imagine you could interview this person. What is one question you would ask them?
Draw a picture of yourself talking to your hero.*