It was a cold, dark evening in November. Leo the Lion invited his friends to the park to celebrate Bonfire Night. They wrapped up in warm coats, woolly hats, and scarves. In the middle of the field, there was a big bonfire. It crackled and popped as the orange flames reached towards the stars. Suddenly, a bright firework zoomed into the sky. It went 'whizz' and 'pop', turning into red and green sparks. Everyone cheered. They held their sparklers carefully, waving them in the air to make glowing patterns. It was a very noisy, colorful, and happy night.
