Learning objective: To retrieve information from a text and use descriptive language to write about Bonfire Night.

Read the story about Nova the owl watching the night sky, then answer the questions below.

Nova the barn owl sat high in her favorite oak tree. It was the 5th of November. Below her, the people in the village had built a large bonfire. It crackled and popped as the orange flames danced towards the stars. Nova watched as colorful fireworks zoomed into the dark sky. One went 'whizz' and turned into a bright blue circle. Another made a loud 'bang' and showered the sky with sparkling gold lights. Nova hooted happily. She loved watching the night turn into a beautiful show of light and sound.
