

Book Review Fun with Pip the Bookworm

Learning objective: To write a simple book review by expressing personal opinions about a story and explaining why.

Read the questions below and think about your favorite book. Use the word bank to help you write your answers in full sentences.

Pip the bookworm has just finished reading a wonderful story! Now, Pip wants to hear what you think about the books you have been reading in class.

Word bank: exciting · funny · adventurous · happy · favorite · character · interesting · because

1. What is the title of the book you have just finished reading? (1 mark)

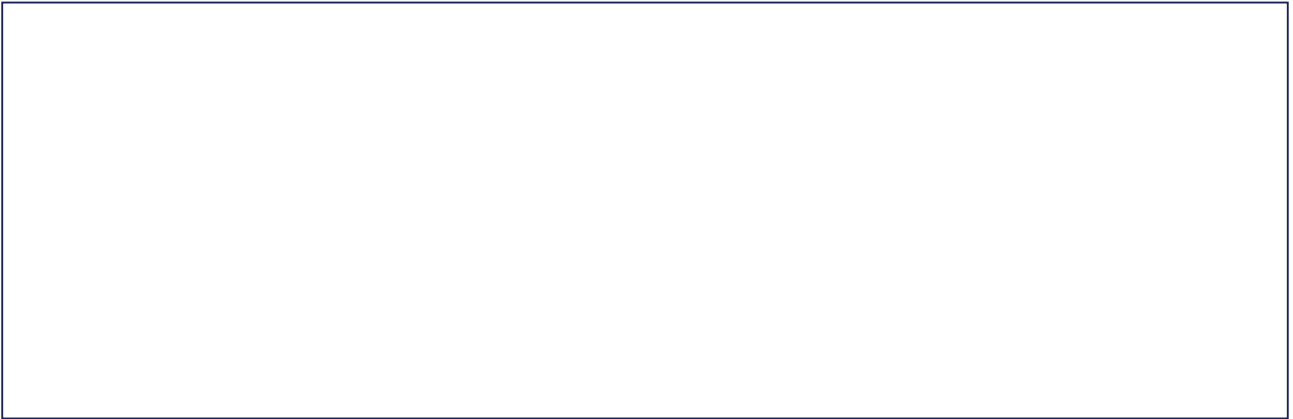

2. Who is your favorite character in the book and why do you like them? (2 marks)

3. Did you enjoy the story? Use the word 'because' to explain your answer. (2 marks)

4. If you could give this book a star rating out of 5 stars, how many stars would you give it? Explain why. (2 marks)

5. Would you tell a friend to read this book? Why or why not? (1 mark)

Draw: Draw a picture of the most exciting part of the story you just read. Make sure to include the main character!

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a student to draw a picture of the most exciting part of a story and include the main character.

Extension challenge: Write one sentence about how the story ended. Did it have a happy ending or a surprising ending?
