

Pip's Book Review Workshop

Learning objective: To express preferences and opinions about a story, and to use descriptive vocabulary to explain why a book is enjoyable.

Pip the bookworm wants to know what you think of your favorite story! Look at the word bank for help with your describing words. Complete the review sentences below to tell Pip all about your book. You can use your own ideas or pick words from the list to fill in the gaps.

Word bank: exciting · funny · happy · brave · colorful · magical · best · favorite · interesting

1. The title of the book I read is... (1 mark)

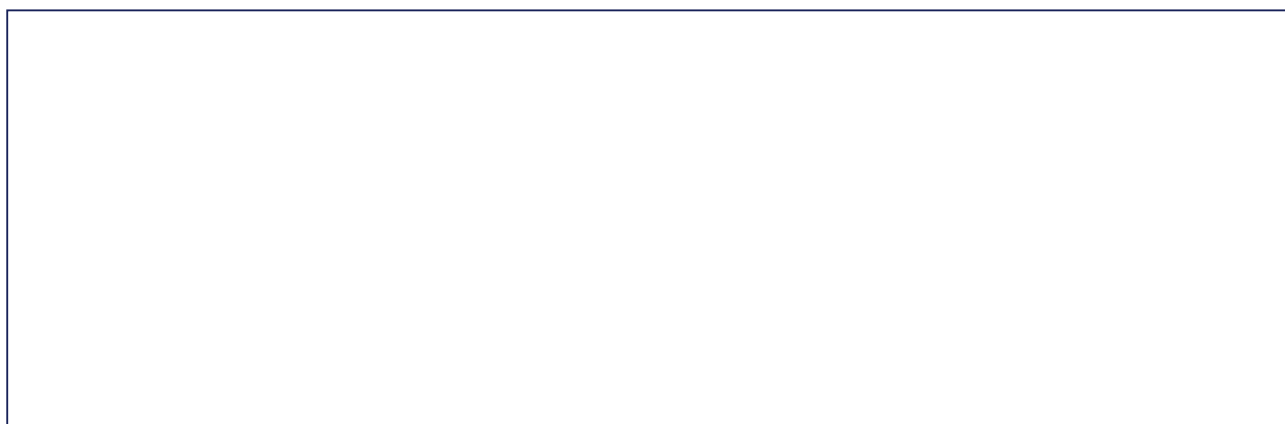

2. My favorite character in the book was... (1 mark)

3. I think this book is _____ because... (2 marks)

4. The part of the story I liked the most was when... (2 marks)

5. I would give this book [number] stars out of five because... (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of the most exciting scene from the book you just reviewed. Make sure to include your favorite character in your drawing!

Extension challenge: Imagine you are Pip the bookworm. If you were writing a review for a book about a giant sunflower, what three words would you use to describe it? Write them down and tell a friend why you chose them.
