

My Character Profile: A Day in the Life with Max the Monkey

Learning objective: To practice neat, joined-up handwriting while describing the personality and actions of a character.

Use your best joined-up handwriting to complete this profile about Max. Remember to keep your letters the same size, sit them carefully on the line, and ensure your ascenders and descenders are clear. Focus on making your handwriting neat, consistent, and easy for others to read.

Word bank: enthusiastic · calculate · mathematical · adventure · energetic · problem-solving · curious · thoughtful

1. Max's Personality: Describe what Max is like using at least three adjectives. How does he behave when he finds a new puzzle? (2 marks)

2. The Math Challenge: Imagine Max is trying to count the coconuts in a tree. Describe how he uses his math skills to solve the problem. (2 marks)

3. A Favorite Habit: What is one thing Max loves to do every single day? Explain why this makes him a great friend to the other BookFlik characters. (2 marks)

4. The Setting: Where does Max live? Describe his home using your neatest joined-up handwriting. (2 marks)

5. A Question for Max: If you could ask Max one math puzzle to solve, what would it be? Write your question here. (1 mark)

Extension challenge: Choose two sentences you have written. Copy them out again on a separate piece of paper, focusing on making your joins between letters as smooth and even as possible.
