

Non-Chronological Report Word Mat

Learning objective: To identify and use key vocabulary associated with writing informative non-chronological reports.

Key Vocabulary

Use these words to help you write clear and informative reports. They are grouped by their purpose in your writing.

Fact A piece of information that is proven to ...	Subheading A small title used to break a re...	Introduction The opening paragraph that tel...
Formal Writing in a serious and clear way, a...	Objective Writing that focuses on facts rathe...	Caption A short sentence explaining what is...
Diagram A labelled drawing that shows how ...	Glossary An alphabetical list of difficult word...	Classification The way of grouping things t...
Habitat The natural home or environment of ...	Features The important parts or characterist...	Diet The types of food that an animal or pers...
In addition A linking phrase used to add mo...	Furthermore A formal word used to introduc...	Consequently A word used to show the resu...
Specifically Used to identify one particular th...	However A word used to introduce a differen...	Why is it importa...
Write a sentence ...	What is the differ...	Why do we use s...
If you were writin...		