

Exploring Storytime with Pip the Bookworm

Learning objective: To identify and understand the key features of stories, including characters, settings, and plot structures.

Read the front of each flashcard to learn a new story word. Then, turn it over (or look at the answer) to see what it means. Use these terms to talk about your favorite books!

What is a Character?

A person, animal, or creature that is in a story.

What is a Setting?

The place where the story happens, like a forest, a castle, or a beach.

What is a Plot?

The series of events that happen in a story.

What happens at the Beginning of a story?

We meet the characters and find out where they are.

What happens in the Middle of a story?

The characters usually have a problem to solve or an adventure to go on.

What happens at the End of a story?

The problem is solved and the story comes to a finish.

Who is the Author?

The person who writes the story.

What is a Title?

The name of the book or story.

What is Fiction?

A story that is made up by the author's imagination.

What is Non-Fiction?

A book that gives us true facts and information.

Pip the bookworm loves stories! If a story has a dragon, who is the dragon?

The dragon is a character.

If a story is set in a magical garden, what is the 'magical garden'?

It is the setting.