- A noun is a naming word for a person, place, or thing, such as 'elephant' or 'park'.
- An adjective is a describing word that tells us more about a noun, like 'shiny' or 'soft'.
- You can use a dictionary to find the meaning of a new word you have never seen before.
- Synonyms are different words that have the same or a very similar meaning, like 'happy' and 'cheerful'.
- Using interesting vocabulary helps the reader create a clear picture in their mind.

Did you know? Did you know? Pip the caterpillar collects words just like some people collect shells! Pip says that if you find a boring word like 'big', you can swap it for an exciting word like 'enormous' or 'giant' to make your story much more fun to read.
