

Celebrate World Book Day with Pip!

Grab a book, find a cosy nook, and let your imagination take flight!

- World Book Day is a special day to celebrate our love for reading stories.
- An author is the clever person who writes the words in our favorite books.
- An illustrator draws the colorful pictures that help us imagine the story.
- You can find thousands of different books to borrow at your local library.
- Reading helps us learn about new places, animals, and magical worlds.
- Pip the caterpillar loves to collect new words from every book he reads!

Did you know? Did you know? The very first World Book Day was celebrated in 1995! People all over the world celebrate by sharing stories, dressing up as their favorite book characters, and discovering brand new adventures hidden inside library shelves.
