Draw: Draw a colorful calendar for the week. Label each day in French using your best handwriting and add a small picture next to each day to show what Rosa the parrot likes to do, such as flying on 'lundi' or eating seeds on 'samedi'.

Extension challenge: 1. Explain why French days of the week are not capitalised in the middle of a sentence, unlike in English. 2. Compare and contrast the patterns in the words 'lundi', 'mardi', and 'mercredi'. What do you notice about their endings? 3. Justify your answer: If you were creating a new day of the week to add to the calendar, what would you name it and why? 4. What might happen if we did not have names for the days of the week? 5. If Rosa spends £2 on birdseed every 'dimanche', how much does she spend over four weeks? 6. Research and explain the origins of the French days of the week. Why are they named after planets?
