

Bonjour, Tout le Monde! French Greetings with Rosa the Parrot

Join Rosa the Parrot on a colorful journey to learn the language of France!

- When you want to be polite and ask someone how they are feeling in French, you use the phrase 'Ça va?'
- If you are leaving a friend and want to say goodbye, the correct word to use is 'Au revoir'.
- To show good manners when asking for something, remember to add 'S'il vous plaît' at the end of your sentence.
- If someone asks you how you are, you can reply 'Bien, merci' to say that you are doing well.
- Rosa the Parrot uses 'Bonjour' as a bright and cheerful way to start any conversation during the daytime.

Did you know? Did you know? In France, it is very polite to say 'Bonjour' as soon as you enter a store or greet someone for the first time in the day. It is considered a sign of friendliness and good manners!

Key vocabulary: Bonjour (Hello/Good morning) · Salut (Hi/Bye) · Ça va ? (How are you?) · Bien, merci (Fine, thank you) · Au revoir (Goodbye) · S'il vous plaît (Please) · Merci (Thank you)