

Exploring the Frozen Frontiers: Polar Regions Word Mat

Learning objective: To identify, define, and apply geographical terminology related to the Arctic and Antarctic regions.

Key Vocabulary

Use this vocabulary mat to support your geographical enquiries. Terms are grouped by their specific category to help you build your knowledge of these extreme environments.

|                    |                       |                                                 |
|--------------------|-----------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| Explain why per... | Compare and con...    | Justify your ans... Why is the concept of 's... |
| What might happ... | Define 'adaptation... | If you were plann...                            |