

Ellie's Bronze Age Adventure Quiz

Learning objective: To recall and apply knowledge about the Bronze Age, including metalworking, trade, and daily life in Britain.

Join Ellie the elephant on her journey through time! Read the questions carefully and select the best answer or write your response in the space provided.

Answer Key: 1. C (Copper and Tin), 2. True, 3. False (It was the Bronze Age), 4. Roundhouses, 5. B (It allowed for stronger tools and weapons), 6. False (They traded across long distances), 7. Smelting, 8. A (Circular homes with thatched roofs), 9. True, 10. Hillforts.

Word bank: Bronze · Copper · Tin · Trade · Beaker People · Hillforts · Roundhouses · Smelting

1. 1. What two metals are melted together to create bronze? A) Iron and Gold, B) Silver and Lead, C) Copper and Tin*, D) Zinc and Nickel (1 mark)

2. 2. True or False: During the Bronze Age, people began to live in more permanent settlements than in the Stone Age. (1 mark)

3. 3. True or False: The Bronze Age happened before the Stone Age. (1 mark)

4. 4. What is the name of the circular, wooden homes that people lived in during this period? (1 mark)

5. 5. Why was bronze an important invention? A) It was easy to find in the ground, B) It made stronger tools and weapons*, C) It was the only metal available, D) It could be used to make bread. (1 mark)

6. 6. True or False: Bronze Age people never traded with people living in other countries. (1 mark)

7. 7. What is the process of heating metal ore until it turns into liquid metal called? (1 mark)

8. 8. Which of these best describes a Bronze Age settlement? A) Circular homes with thatched roofs*, B) Tall stone skyscrapers, C) Underground caves, D) Large glass domes. (1 mark)

9. 9. True or False: People in the Bronze Age used animal skins and wool to make their clothes. (1 mark)

10. 10. Towards the end of the Bronze Age, what structures were built on high ground for protection? (1 mark)

Draw: Draw a scene of a Bronze Age village showing a roundhouse, a person working with metal, and a field of crops.

Extension challenge: Imagine you are a trader in the Bronze Age. Write a short diary entry (50 words) describing the goods you have collected to trade with people from across the sea.