

Max's Striking and Fielding Match Report

Learning objective: To evaluate performance and tactical decision-making in a striking and fielding game.

Max the monkey loves a good math puzzle, and he thinks a game of rounders or cricket is the perfect challenge! After your PE lesson, fill in this report to reflect on your skills, tactics, and teamwork. Be honest about what you did well and what you can improve for the next match.

Word bank: tactics · accuracy · coordination · communication · fielding · striking · teamwork · strategy · defensive · placement

1. The Game Plan: Describe the main tactics your team used when you were in the field to stop the other team from scoring. (2 marks)

2. Striking Success: Explain one technique you used to make sure you hit the ball successfully. How did you decide where to aim? (2 marks)

3. Fielding Skills: Which fielding position did you find the most challenging today and why? Think about your movement and reaction time. (2 marks)

4. Communication Check: How did you and your teammates communicate to ensure everyone knew their roles during the match? (2 marks)

5. Next Steps: What is one specific skill you want to practice in the next lesson to improve your overall performance? (1 mark)

Extension challenge: Design a 'perfect' fielding formation for a team of 9 players. Draw the positions on a pitch map and label where each player should stand to cover the most space.
