- Shabbat is the holy day of rest, which begins at sundown on Friday and continues until sundown on Saturday, a time to disconnect from work and focus on family and faith.
- A Mitzvah is a commandment or a good deed, representing the Jewish value of acting with kindness and following the laws set out in the Torah.
- Jewish festivals, such as Hanukkah or Passover, are celebrated annually to remember important historical events and the liberation of the Jewish people.

Did you know? Did you know? The Torah is considered so sacred that it is written by hand on large parchment scrolls using a special quill. When it is not being read during a service, it is kept in a beautiful cabinet called the Ark, often draped in velvet and decorated with silver ornaments.
