Draw: Draw a map showing a path leading to a place that is special or 'sacred' to you. Include symbols along the path that represent things you might think about during a quiet, reflective journey.

Extension challenge: Greater Depth Challenge: 1. Explain why a person might feel that a physical journey is necessary to strengthen their faith. 2. Compare and contrast the purpose of a holiday with the purpose of a pilgrimage. 3. Justify your answer: Is a pilgrimage about the destination or the journey itself? 4. What might happen if a religious group suddenly stopped visiting their most sacred sites? 5. Imagine you are a travel guide for pilgrims; write a short paragraph describing the qualities a pilgrim needs, such as patience or humility. 6. Research a specific pilgrimage route (e.g., The Camino de Santiago) and explain why it is historically significant.
