

My Special Book Fact-File with Pip the Bookworm

Learning objective: To understand that different religions have special books that are important to people, and to describe why they are valued.

Help Pip the Bookworm learn about a special sacred text! Think about a book that is important to a religion you are learning about. Fill in the boxes below to show what you have discovered. You can use the word bank to help you with your writing.

Word bank: Sacred · Special · Story · Words · Respect · Listen · Read · Teach · Truth

1. The Name of the Book: What is the name of the sacred book you are learning about today?

2. What is inside?: What kind of things are written in this book? Do they tell stories or teach how to be kind?

3. Showing Respect: How do people look after their sacred book? Where do they keep it so it stays safe?

4. The Best Part: What is your favorite story or message that you have heard from this book?

5. Why it matters: Why do you think this book is so important to the people who read it?

Extension challenge: Draw a picture of the book in a special place, like on a shelf or being held carefully by someone, and add a label to describe the cover.